

Open Exhibition in Kanturk Library 2012

Invitation and Guidelines

Who? The exhibition is open to adults living in the greater Kanturk area

Where? It will be held in Kanturk Library

When? The exhibition will open on Thursday March 15th and run until March 23rd.

What? Works to be exhibited may include painting, drawing and hand-made print. There is no restriction of theme or subject. The festival is holding a separate photographic exhibition

How?

- Submit one, or a maximum of two previously un-exhibited works to Jo's Boutique, Strand St., before March 14th.
- All works on paper must be suitably framed. Paintings on canvas stretchers may be presented without frames, if so wished.
- All works must be properly presented for exhibition; labelled (N.B. - see below), strung, and ready for hanging.
- A label bearing the following information must be affixed to the work(s):
 - Artist's Name (and contact details if work is for sale)
 - Title of work
 - Medium
 - Price (if applicable)
- Previously-submitted works should not be again submitted.
- There will be no selection process (unless numbers are unexpectedly high), so participants are requested to bring only works which are in their opinion, their strongest.
- Please contact the curator if you wish to submit extra-large work.
- Exhibitors are requested to leave work hanging until the close of the exhibition and, if possible, to collect it on the afternoon of March 23rd.

Curator: Ciara Colleran – 086 0383122

Disclaimer: Please note that neither Kanturk Arts Festival nor Cork County Council will be responsible for loss or damage to any work during the course of the exhibition.

.....
In Addition:

- Exhibitors, their friends and families, are invited to attend a reception in Kanturk Library on Sat. 17th March at 4.00 PM, where Angela Regan ('Invited Artist' 2012) will be a Guest Speaker.
- The 2012 Kanturk Arts Festival will be launched in O'Callaghan's TOYOTA showroom on Thursday March 15th at 7.30 PM – all are welcome.